Greenberg Advisors Expands Its Advisory Team, Hires Shawn Leventhal

WASHINGTON, DC – December 9, 2013 – Greenberg Advisors, LLC, a boutique investment bank specializing in advising owners and investors in the Accounts Receivable Management (ARM), Revenue Cycle Management (RCM) and related industries, today announced the addition of Shawn M. Leventhal as Vice President.

Mr. Leventhal has been involved in over $2 billion worth of completed transactions. He has served in a variety of corporate finance and investment banking roles at prominent firms including Deutsche Bank, Sawaya Segalas & Co., CapitalSource, and TM Capital. He also served as Director of Finance of an educational consumer products company, and offers that unique operational perspective to clients.

Mr. Leventhal will advise in all of the firm’s key practice areas, which include results-oriented buy-side and sell-side merger and acquisition advice, capital raising, valuation and strategy advice.

“I’m pleased to have Shawn join our team, given his significant middle market experience in investment banking and lending,” said Brian Greenberg, CEO of Greenberg Advisors. “He’s a highly capable professional and his experience and investor relationships will improve the outcomes we achieve for our clients.”

Mr. Leventhal added, “I’m excited to provide the unbiased advice to our clients that only an independent firm like Greenberg Advisors can offer. The firm’s culture is a great fit for me, as it puts clients ahead of all else and encourages collaboration among its professionals to help clients reach their goals.”
