Nearly $5 billion in ARM M&A – Analysis of 2017 Activity

Rockville, MD – January 23, 2018 – Greenberg Advisors, the leading investment bank to specialize in Accounts Receivable Management (ARM), announces the release of its 2017 M&A Update, the preeminent report on investment activity in ARM.

The publication analyzes the considerable level of M&A activity throughout the ARM sector. A sneak peek:

- Nearly $5 billion in transaction value traded hands. Read our analysis and see why the deals of 2017 are an indicator of things to come.
- Financial and healthcare led the way as the industry's most sought-after market segments. We'll explain why we think this should continue in 2018.
- Strategic buyers still rule but financial buyers really stepped up their game. We address the critical questions such as "Who? How much? What's next?"
- Niche specialists will continue to be in high demand. Transactions like this one will keep buyers buying and sellers focused on exit planning.
