Fivos' RCM Assets acquired by ALN Medical Management

Rockville, MD – November 1, 2021 – Greenberg Advisors (GA) is pleased to announce the acquisition by its client, ALN Medical Management (ALN), of selected assets of Fivos. GA served as exclusive M&A advisor to ALN.

ALN is a well-established, growing provider of RCM services and comprehensive business solutions to predominantly physician practices across the US.

As M&A advisors specializing in the RCM and HCIT markets, this strategic transaction is the result of GA's work for ALN in identifying and structuring accretive acquisition opportunities. This is the second transaction in which GA has advised ALN in the past 12 months.

Brian Greenberg, CEO of GA, noted, "This unique carve-out transaction reflects the effectiveness of GA's expertise and relationships in creating a successful outcome for all parties. ALN expands its footprint and Fivos can now focus on its core initiatives while having the peace of mind of knowing that its clients will be well cared for by ALN."

Going forward, Fivos will grow its core business in which it offers comprehensive data insights to improve clinical workflow and patient care in specialty settings. Its clients include specialty providers, medical registries, and device manufacturers.

Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.
